With a #1 song already under his belt Michael Priebe continues to press on to reach the world through music. His enthusiasm for people, life, his music, and his maker are blindingly apparent. His fiery devotion to his maker burns even brighter than just twelve months ago. Taking a huge step of faith Michael and his wife, Nicelle, made the move from the West Coast to Nashville, Tennessee, and have never looked back. Their big move to the Mid South is what inspired Michael to write the title cut of his soon to be released album, "Stepping Out."

"I'LL GO EAST. I'LL GO WEST. I'LL RUN IN CIRCLES IF YOU THINK IT'S BEST. I'M MOVING ON WITHOUT A DOUBT. WITH MY FAITH IN YOU I'M STEPPING OUT."

In the past couple of years Michael has been blessed to share the stage with the likes of Audio Adrenaline, Tait, Jump Five, Patty Cabrera, The Rock and Roll Worship Circus, and more. Priebe takes his calling very seriously...

"I don't merely want to be a Christian entertainer, though there is a need for that. I want to challenge and influence people to go beyond the norm--to take full advantage of the power of the Holy Spirit to reach the nations. That power is here for us. Christ promised it to us. Let's be the men and women of God that He has planned us to be."

This is the attitude that birthed one of Michael's newest, most powerful songs, co-written with producer Jimmy Mac, "I Want to Live."

"I WANT TO LIVE. I WANT THE WORLD TO SEE YOU ALIVE IN ME. WITH EVERY BREATH...EVERY MOVE I MAKE I WILL GLORIFY YOUR NAME."

His debut album from Falcon Records, released in 2000 has received incredible response and attention. Michael's title track, "Where Would I Be", hit the #1 spot on several Christian radio stations throughout the country. As for the rest of the album...watch out! Multitudes of listeners say, "I can't get enough of this album. I play it over and over, and I don't have to skip any songs." And because of this, Michael has sold thousands of albums from coast to coast.
